

WWW.OSUPRICEOFLIFE.ORG
THE PRICE OF LIFE
 at The OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY INVITATIONAL
Confronting 21st Century Slavery

During the week of April 18 - 23, InterVarsity Christian Fellowship USA, along with other student and community organizations, will be collaborating with global and local partners to conduct a campus wide "invitational " outreach. This week-long series of large and small scale events will seek to mobilize students for the purpose of raising money, volunteerism, and awareness concerning human trafficking in general, and the child sex slave industry in particular.

International Justice Mission: www.ijm.org
 Not for Sale: www.notforsale.org
 World Vision: www.humanwrong.org
 Gracehaven Shelter: www.gracehavenhouse.org
 Hagar USA: www.hagarusa.org

We invite you to join this effort.

Sunday, April 18th, 3 PM – Parade of Tears starting and ending at the new Ohio Union, 1739 N. High Street (west side) – a demonstration / rally / fundraiser. The Parade route will follow the historic path of the underground railroad in the campus area (about 1.5 miles total). Participants will demonstrate their objection to the exploitation of children through a variety of protest symbols as we stand with those whose voices have been silenced through modern day slavery.

In an effort to raise money to directly combat the growing evil of human trafficking, participants are each encouraged to raise $100. Funds that are raised will be processed and receipted by InterVarsity, but granted to our Invitational partner organizations (International Justice Mission, Not for Sale, World Vision, Gracehaven Shelter, and Hagar International). Donations can be made at www.osupriceoflife.org or checks can be made payable to IVCF-USA and brought to the event.

I will participate by:

- attending the Parade of Tears
- helping raise $100 to fight human trafficking
- donating on-line by April 18 WWW.OSUPRICEOFLIFE.ORG

Name _____

Email: _____

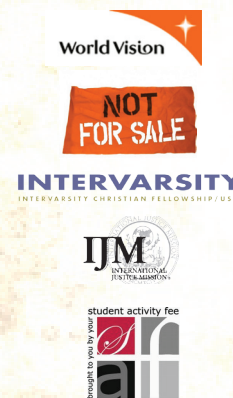

WWW.OSUPRICEOFLIFE.ORG

WWW.OSUPRICEOFLIFE.ORG
THE PRICE OF LIFE
 at The OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY INVITATIONAL
Confronting 21st Century Slavery

During the week of April 18 - 23, InterVarsity Christian Fellowship USA, along with other student and community organizations, will be collaborating with global and local partners to conduct a campus wide "invitational " outreach. This week-long series of large and small scale events will seek to mobilize students for the purpose of raising money, volunteerism, and awareness concerning human trafficking in general, and the child sex slave industry in particular.

International Justice Mission: www.ijm.org
 Not for Sale: www.notforsale.org
 World Vision: www.humanwrong.org
 Gracehaven Shelter: www.gracehavenhouse.org
 Hagar USA: www.hagarusa.org

We invite you to join this effort.

Sunday, April 18th, 3 PM – Parade of Tears starting and ending at the new Ohio Union, 1739 N. High Street (west side) – a demonstration / rally / fundraiser. The Parade route will follow the historic path of the underground railroad in the campus area (about 1.5 miles total). Participants will demonstrate their objection to the exploitation of children through a variety of protest symbols as we stand with those whose voices have been silenced through modern day slavery.

In an effort to raise money to directly combat the growing evil of human trafficking, participants are each encouraged to raise $100. Funds that are raised will be processed and receipted by InterVarsity, but granted to our Invitational partner organizations (International Justice Mission, Not for Sale, World Vision, Gracehaven Shelter, and Hagar International). Donations can be made at www.osupriceoflife.org or checks can be made payable to IVCF-USA and brought to the event.

I will participate by:

- attending the Parade of Tears
- helping raise $100 to fight human trafficking
- donating on-line by April 18 WWW.OSUPRICEOFLIFE.ORG

Name _____

Email: _____

WWW.OSUPRICEOFLIFE.ORG